ACCOMMODATIONS:

Gansevoort Turks + Caicos brings a signature approach to luxury lifestyle that redefines the destination resort experience. Each of the 91 guestrooms offers sweeping ocean views and is positioned and designed to pay homage to the unspoiled island it sits upon. Blurring the line between inside and outside, the resort blends Caribbean cool with sophisticated style to create a sense of place for guests. Guestroom interiors feature luxurious contemporary furniture and bedding atop Italian porcelain floors, allowing the natural light to illuminate each suite. Accents of warm sand hues, dark wenge wood and exotic materials create an inviting ambiance and complement the area's natural surroundings. Floor-to-ceiling windows capture the beauty of Grace Bay Beach, further enhancing the seamless tropical experience.

ENVIRONMENTALLY RESPONSIBLE:

In keeping with the Turks & Caicos Islands motto "Beautiful by Nature", the Gansevoort Turks + Caicos, a Wymara Resort has worked to minimize its impact on the environment. Among the property's green initiatives are:

- Energy Management Systems in each unit
- High efficiency air conditioning that reduces electrical consumption by over 30%
- Recycling of waste water for use on our landscaping which also mean less dependence on fertilizers

- Preservation of the dunes in front of the Resort
- Combined, these initiatives will help to keep the environment pristine for future generations
- Wymara was recognized with the “Green Star award” at Sustainable Tourism Conference in Turks & Caicos Islands May 2008
