Spread across a historical hutong quarter in the heart of Beijing, Mandarin Oriental Qianmen, Beijing celebrates the rich culture and legacy of Beijing's unique urban structure and architectural past. Hutongs date back to the 13th century and comprise traditional courtyard houses connected by narrow lanes and alleys. Guests will have the rare opportunity to experience luxury living in these traditional courtyard houses arrayed in authentic surroundings. The hotel is the second of the Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group to grace China's capital.

The labyrinth of lanes and alleys that distinguish Qianmen East Hutong Quarter, one of the city's oldest areas, is the backdrop for our 42 spacious and luxurious landscaped courtyard rooms. All are decorated and steeped in a traditional Beijing way of life. The hotel offers a variety of dining venues, including Italian and Cantonese cuisines, as well as an atmospheric bar. Guests can enjoy our signature Spa with holistic treatments and a fully-equipped fitness centre. State-of-the-art indoor and outdoor conference and banqueting facilities provide the perfect venue for a wide array of events.

With its unique hutong location in Beijing, Mandarin Oriental Qianmen, Beijing is unlike any hotel in the Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group. But it naturally exhibits the legendary service that Mandarin is famous for. We look forward to welcoming you soon.
