

MANDARIN ORIENTAL PUNTA NEGRA MALLORCA

RESORT FACTSHEET

UNDERSTATED ELEGANCE AMID MALLORCA'S QUIET NATURAL BEAUTY

Warm Mediterranean breezes gently sway Aleppo pines as their scent perfumes the air. A utterly crafted cocktail at sunset lifts all the senses. Live instrumental music entwines with children's laughter as they play in the distance, adding to the truest sense of harmony.

With elegant and prestigious Puerto Portals as its backdrop, Mandarin Oriental Punta Negra, Mallorca celebrates understated, emotional art of living amid the island's quiet natural beauty. Azure vistas of the Mediterranean Sea are framed by majestic trees and the resort's unmatched location offers mesmerizing, uninterrupted coastal beauty, where the natural landscape and serene waters meet as one.

Located in Calvià, the island's most exclusive district, Mandarin Oriental Punta Negra, Mallorca sits within easy reach of Puerto Portals, the historical landmarks of the capital Palma de Mallorca, the international airport and the dramatic peaks of the Serra de Tramuntana mountain range.

A vibrant and refined expression of the island awaits guests through carefully curated moments that celebrate its artistic spirit, natural beauty and dynamic Mediterranean energy. Whether wandering through story-filled Palma's historic centre, succumbing to sublime wellness rituals, or savouring the finest seasonal cuisine, every detail is thoughtfully designed to both inspire and restore.

Innovative dining includes restaurants and a pool bar with local and international cuisines, honouring Mallorca's deep culinary traditions and the finest global ingredients alike. The property's wellness haven then celebrates the meeting of oriental philosophy and modern techniques to serene effect.

Weaving together timeless elegance, striking contemporary design and a proudly Mallorcan soul, Mandarin Oriental Punta Negra promises an unique retreat where legendary service meets intimate luxury. The resort will welcome its first guests in the spring of 2026.

LOCATION

Beautifully situated atop a prestigious peninsula in Costa d'en Blanes, one of Mallorca's most exclusive coastlines, Mandarin Oriental Punta Negra reflects the island's vibrant spirit and unique rhythms.

Spanning three hectares of dramatic landscaped clifftops and fragrant cascading gardens, the resort also offers exclusive access to two secluded coves where warm turquoise waters beckon daily. Here, where inspiration flows at every turn, guests benefit from local cultural experiences including:

- The remarkable and historic centre of Palma where the Gothic masterpiece of La Seu Cathedral, charming, cobbled streets, and the lively Mercat de l'Olivar all await. A 12-minute drive.
- Bellver Castle, dating from the fourteenth century and one of Europe's rare circular castles, offering panoramic views over the bay, surrounded by scented pine woods. A 10-minute drive.
- Puerto Portals marina with its luxury boutiques, beach clubs, waterfront restaurants and superyachts. A 10-minute stroll.
- The Serra de Tramuntana mountains, a UNESCO World Heritage site renowned for hiking, cycling and scenic drives through its stunning landscapes. A 20-minute drive.
- The famously picturesque villages of Valldemossa, Deia and Soller, all home to a rich artistic and musical legacy where creativity inspires at every turn. A 30-minute drive.
- Easy access to some of the island's finest golf courses including T Golf Calvià, Real Golf de Bendinat, and Golf Santa Ponsa I.
- A 20-minute drive to Palma de Mallorca Airport, with direct flights to major European cities.

ROOMS & SUITES

In this seductive, intimate and refined escape, elegant design meets the island's raw beauty. Beautiful hand-placed stones, carefully set throughout the hotel's structure and façade, tell the story of Mallorca.

Every detail, every moment, is part of a sensory journey that brings the island, its heritage, and the hotel's vibrant life to vivid reality. The stillness of the Mediterranean, the generous shade of trees, and the vibrant colours and fragrances of the landscape create an unforgettable canvas for our rooms and suites.

- Sunlight and shadow play across 131 rooms and suites, each framing captivating Mediterranean views. Among them, 26 suites offer serenity, privacy, and a seamless connection with nature.
- 9 casitas (4 Suites, 5 Rooms) nestled within lush gardens, blending the charm of a private terrace with the comfort and sophistication of the resort.
- 13 rooms and suites with plunge pool, 5 rooftop suites with private pool where tranquil waters and sweeping sea views create the perfect sanctuary for relaxation and reflection.
- Mesmerising sounds of laughter fill connecting rooms and suites, exclusive spaces where families and couples enjoy unforgettable moments amidst total privacy and exquisite comfort.

FOOD & BEVERAGE

EXCEPTIONAL DINING

Food is life in Spain like few other countries, nowhere more so than in sun-blessed Mallorca where local culinary traditions entwine with thrilling concepts from world-renowned chefs. Every restaurant at Mandarin Oriental Punta Negra is distinct and unique, reflecting the chef, their creative vision and a tapestry of flavours and ingredients, textures and emotions, where they weave their magic.

MATSUHISA

NOBU-STYLE JAPANESE CUISINE

Nikkei-style Japanese cuisine simply doesn't get more celebrated than at Matsuhisa, where breathtaking ocean views are the backdrop to a sophisticated, warm atmosphere.

The freshest sashimi and sushi are expertly crafted by masters at the counter, celebrating the bounty from the Mediterranean and beyond. Iconic black cod is lifted by sweet-savoury miso and waves of umami, while yellowtail and jalapeño sing in harmony. Whether for intimate dinners or time to simply slow down in the elegant outdoor bar, Matsuhisa's serene setting is enhanced by inventive, Japanese-influenced cocktails and a drinks programme that perfectly pairs with the coastal ambience.

LEÑA

SPANISH STEAKHOUSE BY DANI GARCIA

Few Spanish chefs are as celebrated as Dani Garcia, an Andalusian maestro whose restaurants hold multiple Michelin stars. He has been inspired by the drama, smoke and fire of Mallorcan festivals in the creation of Leña, a new paradigm of contemporary steakhouse where the flame is king and local traditions are celebrated. A display of the finest dry-aged meats make a striking centrepiece, while an open kitchen invites guests to see culinary masters at work. Chef Garcia's signature dishes include yakipinchos, chicken meatballs with a deeply rich traditional Japanese tare glaze, as well as succulent duck breast with fragrant sansho pepper. The bar is also unmissable, thanks to smaller plates from the main menu and beautifully crafted pre- and post-dinner drinks.

JACINTA

AUTHENTIC MEXICAN

Colourful and animated in ways that uniquely define Mexico, Jacinta is an upscale taqueria and cantina that blends contemporary style with authentic tradition. Tacos, tostadas, tamales and tortillas - both corn and wheat - are all hand-crafted from the finest, freshest ingredients, as citrus meets spice to beautiful effect. Traditional recipes from across Mexico ensure that homage is paid to the country's famously vibrant kaleidoscope of flavours with elevated, contemporary touches.

LEPPOC

ALL DAY DINING

The inimitable freshness, flavours and rich culture of Mediterranean cuisine come to the fore at Leppoc, a unhurried yet refined dining destination open throughout the day. On the ingredient-driven menu, every dish is crafted with authenticity, shining a light on the finest and freshest Spanish and Balearic produce and the team's passion and pride in culinary excellence.

Spanish specialties with Levantine influences create a distinctive but always harmonious balance of flavours and styles that invites guests to share and savour together. A standout Garden Bar and vibrant drinks programme add signature cocktails and a laid-back ambiance to the mix, alongside an impressive curation of Spanish wines, including exclusive Mallorcan labels. Designed for families, couples, and groups alike, Leppoc is an always-welcoming destination, whatever the hour.

SOBRETAULA

SPANISH GARDEN TAPAS BAR

Sobretaula is where Spain's timeless tapas culture meets the soul of the sea. Set on a serene and scenic terrace, it's the place to linger alfresco on golden afternoons and starlit evenings alike, as music drifts through the air. The menu celebrates refined Spanish dining, crafted with the freshest local ingredients and just a touch of island spirit. Guests sip on chilled cava, signature cocktails and house-made lemonades infused with herbs, while sharing elegant small plates that capture the very essence of The Mediterranean below. With its unique and graceful rhythms, Sobretaula promises time to slow down, connect, and savour life's most sophisticated moments.

THALOS

POOL CLUB

A refined open-air poolside bar experience offering elegant comfort and a vibrant, energy-filled atmosphere for daytime and early evening socialising. Its menu highlights high quality Greek-inspired comfort dishes, crafted for relaxed, enjoyable dining.

THE WELLNESS HAVEN

Soft light and utter tranquillity define the Wellness Haven at Mandarin Oriental Punta Negra, where deep-rooted traditions and rituals are celebrated. Using natural products in perfect harmony with Oriental philosophies, unique treatments are deeply connected to Mallorca's heritage and inspired by its history. The Curandero Experience channels the island's essence in a treatment using local herbs including eucalyptus, sage, mint, cedar, thyme and chamomile to promote wellness, balance, and ultimate relaxation. The Tea Ceremony is another signature ritual that merges Spanish healing techniques and Oriental heritage.

Transformative wellness experiences provide guests a sense of complete renewal in our nine treatment cabins, ensuring special moments together. In addition to the expansive, fully equipped fitness centre, two outdoor pools, a children's pool, and an indoor pool provide truly soul-stirring views over the Bay of Punta Negra. Heat and water experiences also let guests unwind in a heated hydromassage pool, refresh with steam and cold plunge experiences, then awaken their senses through immersive showers blending water, light, and aromatherapy.

EXPERIENCES

Mandarin Oriental Punta Negra offers the absolute balance between peaceful seclusion and proximity to culture, nature, and lifestyle, where guests enjoy vibrant, elevated island experiences entirely at their own pace. They are invited to step beyond the hotel to discover Mallorca's thrilling cultural diversity through activities and experiences.

YACHTING

Bespoke maritime experiences invite guests to discover Mallorca's enchanting coastline through private charters, guided voyages, and elegant boat excursions. The resort also offers the island's only exclusive yacht transfer service, a seamless and scenic journey from the airport harbour directly to Punta Negra's private port.

VINEYARDS

Discover the soul of Mallorca through its sunlit vineyards, where tradition and innovation come together in every glass. Surrounded by gentle hills and olive groves, local wineries welcome you to explore the craft behind the island's distinctive wines. From crisp white wines to rich reds, each tasting offers a journey through Mallorca's unique landscape and deep winemaking heritage, capturing the essence of the Mediterranean.

YOGA

Experience a refined yoga retreat on iconic Punta Negra, where every moment is crafted to restore balance and inner calm. With panoramic sea views, daily sessions led by a renowned yoga master unfold in a serene and restorative setting. This holistic journey invites you to reconnect with yourself and the natural beauty of the island, embraced by light, stillness, and the rhythm of the Mediterranean.

GOLF

Mallorca is often referred to as 'The Golf Island', thanks to its warm, sunny climate and scenic yet challenging golf courses. Now considered one of the best golfing holiday destinations in Europe, the island offers 24 golf courses, 21 of which are available for non-members.

Mandarin Oriental Punta Negra offers exclusive access and tailored golf packages in partnership with Mallorca's top courses.

CASTAWAY

From yachts and mountaintops to secluded beaches, Castaway offers bespoke dining experiences amidst extraordinary settings. Curated menus and optional wellness treatments combine for truly unforgettable culinary escapes, celebrating cuisines from around the world.

ART

Explore Mallorca's artistic soul through exclusive private tours of local ateliers, where tradition and international creativity converge. From contemporary galleries, to hidden studios, immerse yourself in a rich cultural journey. Throughout the resort, curated art pieces enhance your experience, bringing the island's vibrant art scene directly to you.

MERCADILLOS

Step into the heart of Mallorca's tradition at the vibrant "mercadillos" of its charming towns, where the island's spirit comes alive. These open-air markets offer more than local produce, they are living expressions of community, heritage, and craft. Wander through stalls filled with handwoven textiles, ceramics, and artisanal goods, each piece a reflection of generations of Mallorcan crafting. It is an authentic encounter with the island's rhythm, colours, and timeless creativity.
